Aurealis Awards 2009 Entry Form

The Aurealis Awards 2009 are for works of speculative fiction by authors, editors and illustrators, who are Australian citizens or permanent residents, first published in English between 1 November 2008 and 31 October 2009.

Works may be entered in more than one category, but we encourage you to only choose the most relevant, rather than make across-the-board, blanket entries.

There is no fee to enter works for the awards, and anyone may enter a work into the Aurealis Awards process. But in entering a work, you undertake to supply one copy of the work to each of the judges of the relevant category/categories – ie, you'll need to supply a minimum of five copies of the work entered.

Finalists will be announced on the website in early December 2009, and the winners announced at the Aurealis Awards ceremony at the Judith Wright Centre for Contemporary Arts in Brisbane on Saturday 23 January 2010.

For more details about rules and eligibility, please read the rules and conditions and visit the FAQs at www.aurealisawards.com.
